STAT
Recently, Mr. [redacted] of St. Louis referred your name to the Central Intelligence Agency with an indication that you might be interested in considering employment possibilities with this Federal Agency.

As you undoubtedly know, CIA is the Executive Agency responsible for the coordination of the foreign intelligence activities of the United States Government.

During the last week in October, a Personnel Representative of CIA will be in the Stillwater area. If you would be interested in arranging to meet with him to discuss possible Agency employment, please reply to the above address at your very earliest convenience.

Enclosed is a brochure which outlines in very general terms the employment opportunities to be found in CIA.

Your discretion in this matter would be appreciated.

Sincerely yours,

STATINTL
